The diagram consists of approximately 25 horizontal bars of varying lengths and positions. The bars are drawn with black outlines on a white background. They are scattered across the page, with some groups of bars appearing in the upper half and others in the lower half. The lengths of the bars range from very short to quite long, and they are positioned at different horizontal and vertical locations relative to each other.

Investigation on 08/21/2002 at Clinton Township, Michigan
